Public Transport in Budapest

Public transportation in general is extensive, reliable and cheap. Fares cannot be paid on board and there are fines for traveling without a validated ticket. Tickets are valid for one ride only. A new ticket must be used every time you change lines. Tickets can be cancelled in meters (red punch slots on the board of the tram or bus) or at the metro station entrances (orange boxes). Tickets can be purchased at metro stations, hotels, newsstands and tobacco shops.

All three metro lines meet at Deák tér and run from 4:30am to 11pm. Most bus and tramlines operate until 11pm (further information: <http://www.bkv.hu>).
